Newspapers.com by Ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/118144787

Downloaded on Nov 15, 2019

The Free Press. PUBLISHED BY The Detroit Free Press Company.

The Detroit Free Press.

VOLUME XXXII. DETROIT, MICHIGAN, SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 1867. NUMBER 283.

LOCAL MATTERS.

THE BASE BALL TOURNAMENT.

The Fourth Day's Playing.

Three Splendid Match Games Witnessed.

A DAY OF INTEREST AND EXCITEMENT.

A FULL REPORT OF THE DAY'S SPORT.

The Programme for To-day.

The First Prize to be Played for Off.

The Alphabet and the Various Clubs are Put Down for This Morning.

THE FOURTH DAY'S proceedings which we give proved scarcely interesting, for the weather yesterday very well contested and both players and spectators seemed to be in a good humor with the game. The friends of each club made themselves busy whenever their favorite made a point, and it really seemed predominant on all hands. The free game called was the Detroits against the Commercials, of this city, and was a fairly contested match. The result, however, was a little surprise to nearly all present, and to the Detroits it was a little more than a surprise. The day's play in this game, have gained new hosts, and are now regarded as the best club in the city.

The Detroits, Commercials, Rush and Maumees play though his game yesterday was hardly up to the mark. Yesterday's game was a fair specimen of Hodge's this match proved himself a valuable acquisition and made a decided gain in the process of this made by the latter. On the part of the Commercials, Jacobs, Rand and Mason contested the best scores. Brauer did not do so well as in the last match. Brown and Walker also failed to keep their scores up to the standard of the Detroits, and gave pleasure and satisfaction to their friends.

First Inning—Above at the bat, Brown made the first on a hit off right field, and made good on a wild throw, and over home on a passed ball. Lathrop got his first on three balls, second on Hopwell's error, and made at first base on a ball to short stop. Rosecry made a ball into right field, brought home Lathrop home. Ramsey made his third on a passed ball, and once home when Rush made a short hits left, on which he reached second by wild throwing. Whiting went out at first by a ball to second, which reached first before him. Davis made a hit to second, brought home Ramsey by a low ball to home. Rundick sent Rathbun to his third on a wild throw, and home on an out by fly to first base, leaving Rathbun and Rundick back.

Commercials sent Walker to bat, who made his first by a high ball, which dropped behind the pitcher, and was home by a fair throw to second base. Jacobs struck a strong hit to left and went to first and got to third by a passed ball. Hoch got out by fly ball to first. Jacobs scoring home by a long hit to left field, on which he was home. Hoar sent Walker home by a hit to left field, and reached second on the throw home. Brauer sent a fair down the center, making four, was to second on a fly ball, and Whitcomper brought him home by a slow hit to right. Rand made a fine hit to left, and Brauer sent a fair down the center, making four, and Rand home on a fly ball to first. Mason sent Brauer home by a hit to left, and Rand home on a passed ball. Hunt put his ball down to left, close to the line, reaching second, took third and home on a long hit to left by Davis, who was only stopped at third. Whitcomper went out on a foul, and Gibbs was out on fine for a short ball fielded by short stop, leaving James third.

Second Inning—Roberts sent a fly into center, making four, was to second on a passed ball, and home on a hard hit to right by Rathbun, leaving Rathbun at first. Rogers put a safe hit to left, going to first, second on the pitching, and home on a pass. Ramsey made a good one into center, on which he captured a home run. Davis put his ball to third, reaching first, and getting second on a fly catch by Whitney, who made fine, and each made a base on a ball sent to short right field by Rathbun, who tarried at first. Davis came home on a passed ball, and Rogers put home, by a ball which Hamilton put on the ground to left, making five. Whitney came home, Rathbun to third, and Whiting failed to reach a base on a ball sent by Davis, who got safely to first, then to second, but was hit back, as also Rundick. Rathbun going on to a first. Hide out.

Davis was out by Brauer on the fly. Brown went to first, on a grounder to first. James got safely to first by a short ball to pitcher, which was easily missed by first. Walker came in on a passed ball, and Jacobs to third, Brown to home. The latter made good his base on a short ball, the ball being fielded against him to first by short stop, leaving Jacobs at third.

Third Inning—Lathrop put a grass cutter down the center going to first, running second and third and home on three balls, by which he earned a home run. Ramsey helped him to home by a fly to right, which he failed to reach, and Rosecry sent home Lathrop by a passed ball. Davis was put home by a hard hit to left, which he failed to reach, and Davis home on a fine hit to center, leaving Davis at first. Rundick sent Davis home by a hard hit to left, which he failed to reach, and Davis home on a fine hit to center, leaving Rundick at first. Rathbun sent Rundick home by a hard hit to left, which he failed to reach, and Rundick home on a fine hit to center, leaving Rathbun at first. Whiting sent Rathbun home by a hard hit to left, which he failed to reach, and Rathbun home on a fine hit to center, leaving Whiting at first. Davis sent Whiting home by a hard hit to left, which he failed to reach, and Whiting home on a fine hit to center, leaving Davis at first. Rundick sent Rathbun home by a hard hit to left, which he failed to reach, and Rathbun