

BASE BALL.—The match at Base Ball between the Champions of the U. S. and those of Canada was played yesterday at Niagara Falls. The contestants were the "Atlantics" of Brooklyn, N. Y., and the "Young Canadians," of Woodstock. A lively interest was taken in the contest, and a large number of spectators were on the ground, a few from Guelph, belonging to the Base Ball fraternity, being amongst the number. There were ten cars loaded with passengers left Woodstock on Monday morning to witness the game. The following is the score :
