

$9,000.

The Guelph and Woodstock papers are in a squabble over the recent row on the occasion of the visit of Guelph to Woodstock to witness a champion base ball match. The Guelph Mercury says that Woodstock has a widespread reputation for being the headquarters of many pugilists, gamblers and "light fingered gentry" in general, who are not kept in proper subjection.

In the Welland Canal water has become