BASE BALL MATTERS.

Firemen's Match—About the Tournament—
Entries, etc.

The long-delayed base ball match between the Hook and Ladder Company and the Steamer Company, of the London Fire Brigade, came off yesterday on the Cricket Square. The "Hooks" were represented by W. Taylor, McPherson, M. Gleeson, O. Madigan, P. Gleeson, P. Booth, Fitzgerald, S. Noble, S. Anderson; the Steamer by W. Andrus, Smith, W. Anderson, Campbell, Cathro, McDonald, J. Noble, Mueckler, Graham. Four innings were played by the Hooks, and five by the Steamer. The former won by 16 runs. The prize was a large iced cake.

THE TOURNAMENT.

The arrangements in progress for the grand tournament, to commence on Monday next, the 23rd, are of a very satisfactory nature. New ground has been measured off for the games, and two grand stands are to be erected, affording a clear view of the whole field. To these it is proposed to charge an admission fee of ten cents.
