

THE COLORED BASE-BALL MATCH.—In our report of the Base-Ball match between the Goodwills of London and Rialtos of Detroit, on Friday last, the score given was 83 to 20, against the Goodwills. This is a mistake. The first figures should have read "33," a very wide difference. The Goodwills are newly organized, and have not had much practice; yet they made a very good stand against their opponents, who have played in company for several years.
