The second match was begun on the Infantry Barrack Square, at eleven o'clock, a. m., between two other third class clubs — the "O. K.'s" of London, and "Beavers" of St. Mary's. This game occupied all the afternoon. During its progress, the pitcher, Samuel Woods, in catching a ball swiftly thrown, had one of his fingers severely split, and will be disabled for a month. He was attended by Drs. Morden and Westland. — But his place was soon filled by another man, and the game suffered no interruption. The following is the score:—
