

Base Ball Match Yesterday.

CLEVELAND VERSUS LONDON -- OUR SIDE VICTOR.

An interesting game at base ball was played yesterday afternoon, between the Grove City club of Cleveland, and the Taconaha, of London. There were nine innings played, and the game resulted in favor of London by a good majority, in fact we may call it a pretty good beating. The Cleveland men are fine athletic fellows, and some of them are first-class at the bat, though not sufficiently smart at fielding. Of course they labored under the disadvantage of not being acquainted with the ground. Doubtless, in the playing to-day, in their match with the Young Canadians, they will put in a better appearance. Mr. Harry Strong, of Grand Rapids, formerly of London, officiated as umpire. The following is the score:
