FLAX MILL BURNED.*ARTHUR, Sept. 1.

The flax mill recently erected here by N. McIver, took fire about three o'clock this afternoon, and in a very short time both the mill and about four hundred tons of flax were completely destroyed. The fire was caused by sparks from the engine. No insurance.

FATAL VESSEL ACCIDENT.*PORT DALHOUSIE, Sept. 1.

As the workmen at Muir's shipyard were hoisting a mast to put into the schooner M. L. Breck here to-day, the line broke, letting the mast fall on the deck. Part of the wire rigging struck a carpenter named James Canning, injuring him so badly that he died in about half an hour. The accident also did considerable damage to the vessel and rigging.
