

BASE BALL.—A match was played on the grounds of the Maple Leaf Base-Ball Club, upper James-street, on Saturday afternoon, between the Ontario Base-Ball Club and the Mechanics', of the city. Mr. H. Sweetman of the Maple Leaf acted as umpire. The match was won by Mechanics Club, after six innings, by eighteen runs. A match also came off on Saturday afternoon between the employees of Sawyer's agricultural implement manufactory, and those of the Canadian felt hat works, which resulted in a victory by five runs for the former. The striking of Mr S Beck of the winning club was particularly excellent. The regular monthly meeting of the Eagle Base Ball Club will be held at their rooms at eight o'clock this evening.
