

<https://newscomwc.newspapers.com/image/1221822357/>

BASE BALL.—On Dominion day a friendly game of base ball was played at Fort Erie, between the International club of that place and the Frontier club, of Black Rock, U.S. The game was a spirited one, and the Canadians were victorious, giving another proof of their superiority in all manly sports.