

A game of base ball was played yesterday between the Frontiers and Young Mechanics Clubs, of this town. The former, we are informed, were ahead four or five runs, when a misunderstanding arose, and there was some chance for a set-to for a few moments, but fortunately it did not come off.